

Re-Write the Memories

New Edition

Man

(oh yeah)
I don't know what I'm gonna say to her Rizz ya know?
(ooh yeah)
I ain't ever been through nuttin' like this
This was my heart man
(listen)
I just gotta step up and just be a man about it

Flashback
Time passed
then nothin's the same
Lost our Love in
Too many games

And girl I hope that you
Forgot about
The reasons you forgave
But the memories don't seem to go away
No

No I never ever meant to hurt you
No I never meant to make you cry
And I wish I could erase the heartache
And turn back the hands of time
And I'm sorry that you're still reminded
Wish I could just rewrite it
Our short stories last so long
Rewrite the memories

This crazy
I wish I can do it all again

So much
To talk about
(that's right)
But nothing to say
(nothin to say)
Cuz words are
So empty
When you feel betrayed

(when you feel betrayed)
I can't find a way
To justify
The reason I just lied
(why)
But I did it all to spare you any pain
oh yeah

Cause I never ever meant to hurt you (never meant to hurt you)
No I never meant to make you cry
(never meant to make you cry)
And I wish I could erase the heartache

(heartache)
And turn back the hands of time
And I'm sorry that you're still reminded
Wish I could just rewrite it

(said I'm sorry)
Our short stories last so long
(last so long)
Rewrite the memories

Baby I know you hurtin
Just pick up the phone
(Get back where we used to be)
Baby just talk to me

Oh baby let me hold you and rewind
And I wont make that silly mistake twice
Please hold me cuz I need you in my life

No I never ever meant to hurt you
No I never meant to make you cry
And I wish I could erase the heartache

(Wish I yeah, yeah)
And turn back the hands of time
(turn back the hands of time)
And I'm sorry that you're still reminded (I'm so, I'm so sorry that you still reminded)
If could just rewrite it
Our short stories last so long

And I'm sorry that you're still reminded
Wish could just rewrite it
(Never meant to make you cry)
Our short stories last so long

Rewrite the memories

(Rewrite the memories)

(never meant to make you cry)

Get back where we used to be

(back where we used to be)

(I wanna turn back the hands of time)

If I could just rewrite it
I would just rewrite it
If I could just rewrite it
I'd rewrite our memories

Y'all just don't understand
(sorry)
To have somebody real close to you
(sorry for the pain)
When you lost that trust
You basically lose everything
