

Relight the Fire

New Empire

I've lived, I've breathed, I've stole
I've fallen on my knees
I fought the cold
In capturing the seasons
I've lost between the amber leaves

I've hurt, I've lied, I've cursed
I'm laughing till I cry
The ones we hurt
The most I hold the closest
And I just don't know why

So can you relight the fire?
Relight the fire
Relight the fire
Can you relight the fire?
Relight the fire
Relight the fire

I dream, I run, I wait
I'm crossing out the days to begin again
I've fallen with a lover
And crashed the other side

I'm big, I'm weak, I'm tall
I'm learning what it means to fight for a cause
I don't know who I can be
But I know who I was

So can you relight the fire?
Relight the fire
Relight the fire
Can you relight the fire?
Relight the fire
Relight the fire

So can you relight the fire?
Relight the fire
Relight the fire
(Oh whoa oh)
(I dream, I run, I wait)
(I'm crossing out the days to begin again)

So can you relight the fire?
Relight the fire
Relight the fire
Can you relight the fire?
(I've fallen with a lover)
Relight the fire
Relight the fire
(And crashed the other side)

So can you relight the fire?
(I'm big, I'm weak, I'm tall)
Relight the fire
(I'm learning what it means to fight for a cause)
(I don't know who I can be)

Relight the fire
(But I know who I was)
Can you relight the fire?
Relight the fire
Relight the fire
(Oh whoa oh)
