New Found Glory

Yeah
All the rage you sprinkle down
Off your safe and cozy beds
I think it's time you get out
Share the hope you're basking in
I won't let good people down like that
These songs aren't for awards
It's how we take a breath

Less talk
Take steps, then your truth will show

Whether I'm at the top, or whether I'm broken down
My word is cement, I'm gonna give you one-hundred percent
Whether we're so in love, or whether you're falling out
My word is cement, I'm gonna give you one-hundred percent
One-hundred percent

Oooh
I feel the trauma creeping up
Face the mirror, my head erupts
But what is fiction?
Irrational fear
Grasping air I've got to let it go
Life will kick you down
Be sure of that
But stand up, grab it's throat and yell "you've met your match"

Less talk
Take steps, then your truth will show

Whether I'm at the top, or whether I'm broken down
My word is cement, I'm gonna give you one-hundred percent
Whether we're so in love, or whether you're falling out (Whether you're falling out)
My word is cement, I'm gonna give you one-hundred percent

Jump in!
Just enjoy!

Oooh less talk
Take steps, then your truth will show

Whether I'm at the top, or whether I'm broken down
My word is cement, I'm gonna give you one-hundred percent
Whether we're so in love, or whether you're falling out
