

Ferris Wheel

New Found Glory

You've been so excited for this weekend
And I've been working overtime to pretend
You say you love the swing ride the best
But look at that dude with the sketchy tattoo on his chest

He's been in the hot sun all day
Running heavy duty machinery
No fear in your eyes, they're just sparkling
You're ready to ride and I'm scared I might die

With you at the top of a Ferris wheel
Being here conquers a fear
I think as we kiss
If the bench would fall
This moment's worth it risking it all

All the upset stomachs when I was young
Puking on the zipper and graviton
It's too late now for me to back down
I don't want to ruin or damper the moment
While screaming inside
Why aren't we home yet.

With you at the top of a Ferris wheel
Being here conquers a fear
I think as we kiss
If the bench would fall
This moment's worth it risking it all

With you at the top of a Ferris wheel
Being here conquers a fear
I think as we kiss
If the bench would fall
This moment's worth it risking it all

Now I see what you mean
Look at the way the sky
Turns purple above the green
Far back in the clearing
This feels like a dream
Sitting with you at the top

This moment's worth it risking it all

With you at the top of a Ferris wheel
Being here conquers a fear
I think as we kiss
If the bench would fall
This moment's worth it risking it all

With you at the top of a Ferris wheel

With you at the top of a Ferris wheel
This moment's worth it risking it all
