

Heaven Isn't Too Far Away

New Found Glory

Got a picture of your house
And you're standing by the door
It's black and white and faded
And it's looking pretty worn
See the factory that I worked
Silhouetted in the back
The memories are gray but man
They're really coming back

I don't need to be the king of the world
As long as I'm the hero of this little girl

Heaven isn't too far away
Closer to it every day
No matter what your friends might say

How I love the way you move
And that sparkle in your eyes
Here is a color deep inside them
Like a blue suburban sky
When I come home late at night
And you're in bed asleep
I wrap my arms around you
So I can feel you breathe

I don't need to be a superman
As long as you would always be my biggest fan

Heaven isn't too far away
Closer to it every day
No matter what your friends might say
Well find a way
Silence

Now the lights are going out
Around the boulevard
The memories come rushing back
And it makes it pretty hard
I've got nowhere else to go
And no one really cares
I don't know what to do
But I'm never giving up on you

Heaven isn't too far away
Closer to it every day
No matter what your friends say
I know we're gonna find a way
