New Found Glory

There's a cold winter coming this year
There's a cold winter coming
There's a cold winter coming this year
There's a cold winter coming

There's lots of snow and fog this year
There's lots of snow and fog
There's lots of snow and fog this year
There's lots of snow and fog

Cold winter coming this year
There's a cold winter come
Cold winter coming this year
There's a cold winter come

Lots of snow and fog this year
There's lots of snow and fog
Lots of snow and fog this year
There's lots of snow and fog

I knew it would be cold this winter
That's why I brought my mittens
And come to think of it...
I could use a nice warm cup of tea
Or maybe some pourage
Or maybe a nice lagger
Or a salomi sandwich from Tony's Deli
Or maybe some Goh Singh
Or a bundle of fresh herbs and spices
