

Red Light Kisser

New Found Glory

My red light kisser

Friday I'm going to pick her up, she said 7:30!
If I get out of work in time, that'll be alright! (that'll be alright
!)

I'll wear the studded belt you like
And tee shirt from Taking Back Sunday
If you're late I can wait outside
I will wait forever!

My hands are sweating now
Turned off the heater
But I feel cool in my favorite tee shirt

She's my red light kisser, looking in the mirror
Stopping traffic, but it's alright (wa oh woah)
If she pulls me closer
I'm gonna pull over and just stare at her all night (oh oh oh oh)
So let me just pretend that you're all mine
Silverstein comes on at the right time - my red light kisser

It's your turn baby you pick a song
And we'll drive till 6 in the morning!
I'll hold your hand if that's alright
That'll be alright! (that'll be alright)

My heart (my heart) skips skips a beat
Just like that warped tour mix CD
Damn
The one that you made me

My hands are sweating now
I turned off the heater
But I feel cool in my favorite tee shirt

She's my red light kisser, looking in the mirror
Stopping traffic but it's alright (wa oh woah)
If she pulls me closer, I'm gonna pull over
And just stare at her all night (oh oh oh oh)
So let me just pretend that you're all mine
New Found Glory plays at the right time
My red light kisser

My heart is beating fast, the music's faded
But will the moment last (ugh) - it's complicated
At least just for tonight we'll be together
Can we stay at this red light forever
