

Separate Beds

New Found Glory

You'll never get away with it just
Because you have a way with words
To tell me the truth when ever that
Ends you waited what good for you
Is for us to be in separate beds

I need you to not string me along

So stay with me now maybe
I know you barely know me
Are we gonna be anything
Find out in the morning

Stay with me now maybe
I know you barely know me
Are we gonna be anything
Find out in the morning

Your never gonna let me forget it
It's drilled to my brain I have nothing to prove
Nothing good comes from telling the truth
So it's obvious why we lie in separate beds

I need you to not string me along

I need you to not string me along

So stay with me now maybe
I know you barely know me
Are we gonna be anything
Find out in the morning

Stay with me now maybe
I know you barely know me
Are we gonna be anything
Find out in the morning

Find out in the morning

Stay with me and tell me nothings changed

Covers rearranged

Nothings changed

Colors rearranged

So stay with me now maybe
I know you barely know me
Are we gonna be anything
Find out in the morning

So stay with me now maybe
I know you barely know me
Are we gonna be anything
Find out in the morning

Are we gonna be anything

Oh
