

The Devil Has Many Faces

New Found Glory

The devil has many faces
I never thought it would be yours
I'm having a perfect day then
Then I run into you
Oh, no

Things change so fast
Your forever left in ash
Never smoked
But I inhaled your cancer

You should invest
All the times
You say I'm not worth a dime
Your return would bankrupt Wall Street

The devil has many faces
I never thought it would be yours
I'm having a perfect day then
Then I run into you
Oh, no

Spinning tied to a board
They're throwing daggers
Using my shame like their
Very own carnival game
One day they'll be
Humbled by their demons
On their knees begging for mercy

I hope you think of me!

The devil has many faces
I never thought it would be yours
I'm having a perfect day then
Then I run into you

The devil has many faces
I never thought it would be yours
I'm having a perfect day then
Then I run into you

The devil has many faces

The devil has many faces

Oh, no
