

The New Abnormal

New Found Glory

There's no distraction
The silence in my house is louder than the thunder
So I call my mother to ask her
Advice on how I spend my time
All the shows she's binged at night
We talk to not feel so alone
When there's nowhere else to go
But the darkest corners of my mind

All the joy you bring me
I will give right back to you
Seeing you next year is all that I hold on to
You're the last glimmer of light when nothing's right
As the world keeps on tearing itself down
I'll keep focusing on how
In a year's time
You'll be back in my arms

No understanding. The violence in their voices
I'd rather talk to my cat
And I keep checking back to my group chat
We've copied/pasted every meme
We can't see each other
Somehow we've grown closer
When there's nowhere else to go
But the darkest corners of our minds

All the joy you bring me
I will give right back to you
Seeing you next year is all that I hold on to
You're the last glimmer of light when nothing's right
As the world keeps on tearing itself down
I'll keep focusing on how
In a year's time
You'll be back in my arms

I believe in you
I believe in us
I believe in us
And what we can do!

I believe in you
I believe in us
I believe in us
And what we can!

I believe in you
I believe in us
I believe in us
And what we can do!

I believe in you
I believe in us
I believe in us
And what we can do!

I believe in you

I believe in us
I believe in us
And what we can do!

I believe in you
I believe in us
I believe in us
And what we can do!

I believe in you
I believe in us
I believe in us
