The Worst Person

New Found Glory

Had everybody feeling bad for you
The last two years all the pain you went through
You were only giving half the truth
Loving attention, playing a victim
The whole time you were abusing
The ones you loved
You hid your life away
You didn't want them to know
You were hooking up with girls in Boston

R: You might be the worst person
   I've ever met, I've ever known
   You keep doing all that shit that
   You regret
   End up alone

You'd look in my eyes
Tell a lie and not even flinch
You would only stand close to me
To steal a dollar from my back pocket
Manipulate situations and weak minds
To feed all your desires
You would ruin relationships
Then post a smile and hope
Someone likes it
Oh, you know better

R: (2x)

Will you ever get your head straight
Making excuses?
Better point the finger back at you
By now, you know there's no use in Trying to fool me
'Cause I know the full story
So you seek out the meek
Kissing your feet
Spineless believers
Threw me down in the dirt
Dust off my shirt
I'm gonna air it out
I'm gonna air it out for you

R: (5x)
