

Let's Pretend

New Hollow

Did you think it would end this way
Going 'round we finally had it [?]
Did you feel we could ever speak
After all the things you said last week
So just be friends

But now I'll have to find
A new place left to hide
'Cause I've got no strength left inside, yeah

You're the one I thought I love
Wore my heart on my sleeve and you
Threw it on the floor
Said we're friends
Oh
Could it be we were never the same
If that's the case baby then I'm the one to blame
I did it again
Maybe next time I'll pretend

I know I'll be leaving soon
Just ditch this town and don't look back
I'll find a way
I see so clearly now
Not gonna fall into your trap
I'm not afraid

But now I'll have to find
A new place left to run
'Cause I've got no strength left inside, yeah

You're the one I thought I love
Wore my heart on my sleeve and you
Threw it on the floor
Said we're friends
Oh
Could it be we were never the same
If that's the case baby then I'm the one to blame
I did it again
Maybe next time I'll pretend

You're the one I thought I love
Wore my heart on my sleeve and you
Threw it on the floor
Said we're friends
Oh
Could it be we were never the same
If that's the case baby then I'm the one to blame
I did it again
Maybe next time I'll pretend
