

Cheers

New Rules

Been a couple months since I seen you
After all the shit you put me through
I'm glad to say this chapter's 'bout to end
All the little things that remind me
Of you are so far behind me
I finally unfollowed all your friends

Don't it feel like forever
Since we were together
I'ma raise a glass to better times
Cheers to being over

Summer nights
Sharing sweaters and Red Stripes
Stealing kisses while we're stopped at red lights
Cheers to being over
Cold tequila that reminds me of your lips
When I'm drinking I won't call you like I used to do
Cheers to being over you

Ten o'clock and I'm in town
This bar is getting way too loud
Normally I'd be reaching for my phone about now
But even if I wanted to
I got no way of calling you
'Cause I forget your number when I let you go

Oh, don't it feel like forever
Since we were together
I'ma raise a glass to better times
Cheers to being over

Summer nights
Sharing sweaters and Red Stripes
Stealing kisses while we're stopped at red lights
Cheers to being over
Cold tequila that reminds me of your lips
When I'm drinking I won't call you like I used to do
Cheers to being over you

Cheers to being over you
Cheers to being over you

We just grew apart together
Memories that I will treasure
Cheers for all the sweet and bitter times
Cheers to being over

Summer nights
Sharing sweaters and Red Stripes
Stealing kisses while we're stopped at red lights
Cheers to being over
Cold tequila that reminds me of your lips
When I'm drinking I won't call you like I used to do
Cheers to being over you

Cheers to being over you

Cheers to being over you
Cheers to being over you
Cheers to being over you
