New Rules

It's like I'm frozen
Here in this moment
Right before falling, through the ice
I'm suspended
My whole world is ending
And all that you said was, goodbye

What am I to say?
If your mind is made?

Oh baby, no no no
I can't let you go that easily
Seasons come and seasons go
But don't you know that it's supposed to be
You and me forever, Emily

She said a broken door doesn't open
The handle I'm holding
Is holding me back
Our time was borrowed
Our future is hollow
If all our tomorrow's
Are in the past

Oh baby, no no no
I can't let you go that easily
Seasons come and seasons go
But don't you know that it's supposed to be
You and me forever Emily

Oh no, no, no, no, no...
Emily, yeah yeah yeah

What am I to say?
If your mind is made?
I've got these pictures of you in my brain
But this is the only one I can't take

Oh baby, no no no
I can't let you go that easily
Seasons come and seasons go
But don't you know that it's supposed to be
You and me forever Emily
