

Fix Somebody

New Rules

You make me feel like a stranger
Can't see myself in the mirror
After all you wanted me to change

I'm the problem that's what you call me
So you can say that you solved me
When it falls apart, I take the blame
That's how I know

You just wanna fix somebody
It ain't really hard to tell
It's written on your face you want me
Want me to be someone else
Yeah you always say that I need saving
But I don't need your help
So if you wanna fix somebody
Maybe you should fix yourself
Fix yourself

Tried to make, make you happy
You still take till I'm empty
Every time we argue it's the same
I can't be who you want me to
Cause I'm not broken enough for you
And I know, I know, I know

You just wanna fix somebody
It ain't really hard to tell
It's written on your face you want me
Want me to be someone else
Yeah you always say that I need saving
But I don't need your help
So if you wanna fix somebody
Maybe you should fix yourself
Fix yourself

Heya, heya
Fix yourself
Heya, heya
Fix yourself

I can't be who you want me to
I'm not broken enough for you, no
You just wanna fix somebody
It ain't really hard to tell
It's written in your face you want me
To be someone else

You just wanna fix somebody
It ain't really hard to tell
It's written on your face you want me
(Written on your face)
Want me to be someone else (Oh, yeah)
Yeah you won't say that I need saving
But I don't need your help
So if you wanna fix somebody
Maybe you should fix yourself

Fix yourself

Heya, heya
Fix yourself
Heya, heya
Fix yourself
Heya, heya
Fix yourself
Heya, heya
Fix yourself
