

Problem

New Rules

I'm not saying I don't like you
I'm not saying that I'm in too deep
There's no point in trying to fight it
I surrender take control of me

I love and I hate but I can't concentrate with you on me now
I taste and I crave I was loosing my way but I worked it out

You're a problem
Always up in my head
Ever since I met you, ain't got time for my friends
You're a problem
All those parties we missed 'cause we'd be out the back doing the stupidest shit
And it's not just your body
You're not just somebody but it's just the things that we do
Yeah, you're a problem
But I gotta admit, you're the kinda problem that I don't wanna fix

I don't wanna complicate it
I don't wanna make a good thing bad
'Cause we made love, don't wanna break it
You're the poison I can't do without

I love and I hate but I can't concentrate with you on me now
I taste and I crave I was loosing my way but I worked it out

You're a problem
Always up in my head
Ever since I met you, ain't got time for my friends

Yeah, you're a problem
But I gotta admit, you're the kinda problem that I don't wanna fix

You're a problem baby, don't wanna fix, don't want it going away
You're a problem baby, don't wanna fix, don't want it going away

I love and I hate but I can't concentrate with you on me now
I taste and I crave but I can't get away from you now

You're a problem
