New Rules

Sofia, I just wanna be near you
I just want to be the light that's shining in your eyes
But you don't see it
The love that's in between us
It's obvious to me but you just need a little time
So Sofia
Know that I'll be here

When I'm by the phone all week
I tell myself it ain't that deep
But you always find a way to get beneath my skin
I wish that I could turn it off
All these feelings for you they won't stop
I guess you're the only way out of this rut I'm in

Sofia, I just wanna be near you
I just want to be the light that's shining in your eyes
But you don't see it
The love that's in between us
It's obvious to me but you just need a little time
So Sofia
Know that I'll be here
The day you change your mind

The day you change your mind
You're ready to be mine
The day you change your mind
You're ready to be mine
The day you change your mind
You're ready to be mine
The day you change your mind
You're ready to be mine
