

Enemy

New Years Day

You hold me like your possession
In our bed of lies you've made
Your words are your weapons
You twist my perception
Hoping I won't awake

Hey master of deceit
Do you think you're fooling me
Mr. praying on the weak
My turn to watch you bleed
'Cause all my tears have dried
See you on the other side
I've called your bluff and there's no place to hide

'Cause I'm laying wide awake, covered in all your blame
I've got the gasoline and now I'm burning you down in flames
'Cause I'm gonna incinerate
And watch you blaze away 'til only ash remains
'Cause now I know I've been sleeping with the enemy

You tricked me with true intentions then turned it around on me
A liar in the sheets but I won't stay asleep
Set fire to this dream and watch it blistering
It's an eye for an eye won't let you vilify me in the end and now there's no place to hide

'Cause I'm laying wide awake, covered in all your blame
I've got the gasoline and now I'm burning you down in flames
'Cause I'm gonna incinerate
And watch you blaze away 'til only ash remains
'Cause now I know I've been sleeping with the enemy

'Cause I'm laying wide awake, covered in all your blame
I've got the gasoline and now I'm burning you down in flames
'Cause I'm gonna incinerate
And watch you blaze away 'til only ash remains
'Cause now I know I've been sleeping with the enemy
And watch you blaze away 'til only ash remains
'Cause now I know I've been sleeping with the enemy
