

Sleep

New Years Day

"There are these terrors. And it's like, if feels like as if somebody was gripping my.
And these terrors. And it's like, if feels like as if somebody was gripping my throat.
Like last Night, they're not like tremors, they're worse than tremors.
They're these terrors.
Like last night, they're not like tremors, they're worse than tremors.
They're these terrors.
And it's like, if feels like as if somebody was gripping my throat and squeezing.
And..it feels like as if somebody was gripping my throat."

Some say now suffer all the children
And walk away a saviour
Or a madman and polluted from gutter institutions
Don't you breathe for me.
Undeserving of your sympathy
'Cause there ain't no way that I'm sorry for what I did

And through it all.
How could you cry
For me?
'Cause I don't feel bad about it
So shut your eyes
Kiss me goodbye
And sleep
Just sleep
The hardest part is letting go of Your dreams

A drink for the horror that I'm in
For the good guys and the bad guys

For the monsters that I've been Three cheers for tyranny
Unapologetic apathy
'Cause there is no way that I'm coming back again

And through it all.
How could you cry
For me.
'Cause I don't feel bad about it
So shut your eyes
Kiss me goodbye
And sleep
Just sleep
The hardest part is the awful things that I've seen

"Sometimes I see flames.
And sometimes
I see people that I love dying and...it's Always..."

Just sleep

Just sleep
Just sleep
Just sleep
Just sleep
Just sleep

(Screaming:) Wake up!!

"And I can't...
I can't ever wake up."
