

Blue

NewDad

While you took your time, you wasted mine
I said, "I wanted you"
You said you felt too blue
And while you were making up your mind
I lost mine

We don't like the same things
I wanna dance and you just wanna drink
I wanna talk and you just wanna sit alone and think
About how you hate it here
How you wish you could disappear
How you're jealous of everyone
'Cause they have fun

While you took your time, you wasted mine
I said, "I wanted you"
You said you felt too blue
And while you were making up your mind
I lost mine

I tell you every day
I don't want things to stay the same
I said I'll meet you outside
I wanna talk but you just wanna fight
I said, "Why won't you forget?"
You never even wanna talk about it
We're still stuck in the same place
And you only want more space

While you took your time, you wasted mine
I said, "I wanted you"
You said you felt too blue
And while you were making up your mind
I lost mine

While you took your time, you wasted mine
I said, "I wanted you"
You said you felt too blue
And while you were making up your mind
I lost mine

And while you were making up your mind
I lost mine
