

Try sinking my teeth
Whenever you're around
You hold your fruit at reach
I'll bite if I'm allowed
Hold your knife to me
I'm falling on it now
Falling on it now
Falling on it now

Though I won't stop it
From falling apart
Keep on running around for you
Knees on the floor
Bend a little bit more
Break the way that you want me to

I'll still be your
Entertainer
Entertainer

I'll forget your sins
Won't say them out loud
Can't forget your grin
Search for it in a crowd
Your sunlight burns my skin
But I'm basking in it now
I'm basking in it now
I'm basking in it now

Though I won't stop it
From falling apart
Keep on running around for you
Knees on the floor
Bend a little bit more
Break the way that you want me to

I'll still be your
Entertainer
