

The sky is black
The clouds are grey
He hides behind a mask on a rainy day
And there's a mean look in his eye
And I start to wonder why
His menacing gaze has me hypnotized

You look nice
Like a dream
Swear on my life
Bitter cold
Nowhere else
I want to go
Cause I love you
In every picture
Walking through
Heal my faith
Haven't found a better place

The sea it sways
And the sky will fade
Into the contours of his pretty face
And there's a sorrow in his voice
But to me it's a lovely noise
As I'm thrown around
I rattle like a toy

You look nice
Like a dream
Swear on my life
Bitter cold
Nowhere else
I want to go
Cause I love you
In every picture
Walking through
Heal my faith
Haven't found a better place
