

Spring

NewDad

I've been checking out and sleeping in
Been wasting days, where do I begin?
And I've let myself down
Run myself to the ground
I've let myself drown
So deep I can't be found

My head feels heavy
My heart stood steady
There's a cloud above my head
So I'll hide under the covers and stay here til I'm dead

I've been fucking up
Messing around
I wanna feel right
But it's too late now
What have I been drinking?
This isn't what I've been missing
Don't want to fix my problems
So I will try and solve them

My head feels heavy
My heart stood steady
There's a cloud above my head
So I'll hide under the covers and stay here til I'm dead

My head feels heavy
My heart stood steady
There's a cloud above my head
So I'll hide under the covers and stay here til I'm dead
