

Where I Go

NewDad

I think I lost something over time
I lost my body it doesn't feel like mine
I lost my trust in everything and everyone
They take and take
But I'm the one who's made mistakes

Someone take me back
Before something shifted
Before my mind was twisted

Now, I'm disconnected
I'm not alright
Cause you took my pride
Now I'm only here sometimes
And I don't know where I go
I don't know where I go
I don't know where I go
I don't know where I go

I think I lost something over time
I wish they could take back their hands and their eyes
Unwanted touch
And whispers in my ear
You all made me want to fucking disappear

I wish someone could fix what was broken
I wish I hadn't been so open

Now, I'm disconnected
I'm not alright
Cause you took my pride
Now I'm only here sometimes
And I don't know where I go
I don't know where I go
I don't know where I go
I don't know where I go
I don't know where I go
I don't know where I go

Now, I'm disconnected
I'm not alright
Cause you took my pride
Now I'm only here sometimes
And I don't know where I go
I don't know where I go
I don't know where I go
I don't know where I go
I don't know where I go
I don't know where I go
