See you looking, catch it, here's your Cola (Woah, woah)

I never ever ever want for us to be apart
That's a fear, puppeteer, pullin' strings to my heart
Very serious, severely sittin' here inside the dark
'Cause whenever you depart or disappear, I feel parched
All around the world, I wonder where you are
What you doing? Who you hanging with? Probably with the stars
At the party, you the main event, they the undercard
Life changin', let 'em take a sip, they be back tomorrow
Shame shame, I'm still hangin' with the same and lane changin' in the Range
The black seats, cream guts, 'bout to spill my drink
Gas station, fill my tank, rollin', rollin', candy paint
Right inside the cup holder, tryna ignore the phone ranging JID a Buffalo soldier, my momma told me 'bout the game
Never cared about the fame, but now the whole world know my name
Now I'm off the road, I made my quota, no, we ain't the same
If you ain't notice, chillin' really, but who the coldest
