She's Got the Time

Newton Faulkner

Looking at a grey sky Blue skys are coming So I don't mind I'm gonna look her in the eye And I say hey hi how's it going? How's she gonna take it, god knows She's got time But she don't wanna give it to me She's got time But she don't wanna give it to me Sitting on the tube With my brown bag, black bag, red bag, blue bag With my CDs and my two guitars And my face with scars Oh god no She's got time But she don't wanna give it to me She's got time But she don't wanna give it to me Chewing on my food On the floor At the station Guess a bk's ok Try to be friendly I say "yo", do you want a haribo She says "no" She's got time But she don't wanna give it to me She's got time But she don't wanna give it to me She's got time But she don't wanna give it to me She's got time But she don't wanna give it to me
