

Weary

newworldson

Weary, I've been weary for the longest time
Weary, living with a worried mind
Can you hear me?
I could really use a friend
Weary, and I'm knocking on your door again

Oh, my burden I can't tow
Can I lay it down?
Will you help me let it go and put it in the ground?
Weary...

You melt my frozen heart
You fuel my flame
I need a brand new start
I'm calling out your name
Weary...
