Feeling like I'm witnessing a miracle

In the blind darkness
A hand stretches out again looking for you
Hope without any guarantee
Leads me, raises me

You are my destiny
I believed, we were meant to be be
To me, you make me live
The air that I breathe

You too, like me
I'll wait for you
I am paradise with just faith
A mountain worth climbing
'Cause on the horizon
I believed that our sun would rise

And time stops in front of me
I see you looking at me
I still can't believe it
It feels like a dream at this moment

This must be a miracle
Here you and me
Every time you look at me
Every night I dreamed of this
The wish I dreamed of
I can't believe it, at this moment

At the end of the road that seemed far away
Finally finally I get to say "I love you"
And you're so beautiful, unbelievable
It's a miracle, a miracle

I couldn't give up, I
By all means, baby, baby
Because it has to be you
Whenever I think of you
Oh, baby, baby
You're all that I desire

When I think of your smile
Then I smile too
All my senses are overloaded
Hope to touch you, love you, hold you
I waited for this moment

And time stops in front of me
I see you looking at me
I still can't believe it
It feels like a dream at this moment

This must be a miracle
Here you and me

Now that we made it never by my side again
I can't imagine being without you
Don't worry (Don't)

I'll be by your side every night, every day
It's a good vibe, yeah
Together on the rise, yeah
You are my prize, thank God you're mine
