

Devil In The Details

Ängie

My golden hair is blowing in the wind
You look so good, it's so hard not to give in
My heart has been cold for so long, I could not feel a thing
Now I give up, let my cold heart feel something real
Your touch is the warmest of colors, embrace full of sin
My mind is a war filled with terrors, I'm craving your skin

Lock my heart away, lock my thoughts away
Lock my heart away, lock my thoughts away
Lock my heart away, lock my thoughts away

The devil's in the details, baby
The devil's in the details, baby
Devil's in the details, baby
Devil's in the details, baby

The way that you're smoking is making me shiver within Arousing my longing, I don't know, sure thing is a thrill
You smell so good and it lays on my broken heart's string
It's dangerous for me to keep remain of all of these things

Lock my heart away, lock my thoughts away
Lock my heart away, lock my thoughts away
Lock my heart away, lock my thoughts away

The devil's in the details, baby
The devil's in the details, baby
Devil's in the details, baby
Devil's in the details, baby

Pour your fire to my soul
Let me burn down to my bones, baby
Light this fucking match or my heart just might explode
Pour your fire to my soul
Let me burn down to my bones, baby
Light this fucking match or my heart just might explode
