

Love Is A Losing Game

Ängie

The smoke was dancing in the room like golden light
The sun was smiling on your skin
This is a game that we both know we cannot win
And we both know that it's alright

"I'm not perfect", you said
"I'm not perfect", I said

Love is a losing game, we go high
Love is a losing game, we go low
But we both know, we both know
We both know that we will play
Yeah, we will play

I reached out for your cigarette and cried
You said, "We'll do this 'til we die"
We are two losers deep in love
And that's the thrill of it all
I guess that's what makes it alright

"I'm not perfect", you said
"I'm not perfect", I said
"I'm not perfect", you said
"I'm not perfect", I said

Love is a losing game, we go high
Love is a losing game, we go low
But we both know, we both know
We both know that we will play
Yeah, we will play
