

8 To Infinity

Nic D

Eight billion people in the world
Only got eyes for my girl
She got it all, yup everything I'll ever need
And we got

Eight minutes in, we deep in conversation
Eight times outta ten, I'll probably mess it up again
Eight mile, you're my freestyle, that's when you said to me
Let's turn this eight to infinity
Eight different ways to say I love you more than once
Eight seconds ago I decided you were the one
In your corner like an eight ball, never getting rid of me
So I'm turning eight to infinity

My dreams covered in dirt, got coffee on my shirt
I stumble over my words
But somehow
I managed a hello
You told me you were a nurse, and you just got off of work
You complimented my shirt, I think you were tryna flirt
'Cause somehow
Your number's in my cellphone, and we were

Eight minutes in, we deep in conversation
Eight times outta ten, I'll probably mess it up again
Eight mile, you're my freestyle, that's when you said to me
Let's turn this eight to infinity
Eight different ways to say I love you more than once
Eight seconds ago I decided you were the one
In your corner like an eight ball, never getting rid of me
So I'm turning eight to infinity

We talked about life and we talked about goals
And we talked about highs and talked about lows
It was almost like time stood still
We talked about trips and talked about growth
And if we didn't need money then where would we go?
Would we stay in our hometown
Or be the ones who made it out?

And then you told me 'bout a house for sale up on a hill
That's got twenty-seven acres and bedrooms to fill
And a back deck with a fire pit and a grill
And you said
Hypothetically how many kids do you want?
At least two, I'd love to have a daughter and a son
Well me too, you were thinking that you finally Found someone, seemed like forever we were

Eight minutes in, we deep in conversation
Eight times outta ten, I'll probably mess it up again
Eight mile, you're my freestyle, that's when you said to me
Let's turn this eight to infinity
Eight different ways to say I love you more than once
Eight seconds ago I decided you were the one
In your corner like an eight ball, never getting rid of me
So I'm turning eight to infinity
