

Cotton Candy

Nic D

One hunnid Graham

I just bought a 2005 like it's brand new (What)
Never made a flop, not a sandal, nah
I don't trust, so many lyin' like a dandel'
Precision with the way I pick my circle like a banjo
And where would I be
If I still counted on ya?
Right where I was
Now I could sneeze and drop a hundred thousand on you

One, two, yeah
Just a mix of the good days and the bad ones
Hope the good days outweigh the bad ones
Get your money right, let it rack up
If I go, 'least I know I meant somethin' to someone
Yeah, mm
You meant somethin' to someone too
Yeah, uh

'Cause you kiss like cotton candy
Don't wanna save you, you don't need no vigilante
Wanna do a little dancey-dance
You look good, you fancy-pants
You only a six on the Enneagram
Outside of that you a, you a, you a
Outside of that you a ten

Yeah, mm, mm
Yeah, outside of that you a ten
Yeah

I love the way that you pick your friends
You know what they mean, never means to an end
I know what I need, no need to pretend
Like the air I breathe's all you leavin' again
I don't know what that means
Show the world what it take to make it look this easy
Get everything I wish for, I got a big genie
They said "Are you extreme?", I said "Extremely"
Sorry, but it's my summer, get 'em next season

One, two, yeah
Just a mix of the good days and the bad ones
Hope the good days outweigh the bad ones
Get your money right, let it rack up
If I go, 'least I know I meant somethin' to someone
