

Daytona

Nic D

Two steps in the wrong direction
No chance tryna make you move
Road trip, tryna get past Destin
No way I'm gonna make it through
Road side say "Hey Daytona"
I guess fates racin' through
Hey girl, you can stay if you wanna
I don't wanna make you choose

Yeah, I learned that there the hard way
I placed that bet, that parlay
Is that a runway or a hallway?
I gotta move quick, quick, quick, quick
If one thing up, it's the heart rate
Got a letter on the jacket like I'm all state
Yeah, you in good hands like Allstate
What's a love like this, this, this, this?
This, this, this really what I think it is?
If there a love song, I'm singin' it
Girl, I bet if we link, and we click
It'd be somethin' like the internet

Two steps in the wrong direction
No chance tryna make you move
Road trip, tryna get past Destin
No way I'm gonna make it through
Road side say "Hey Daytona"
I guess fates racin' through
Hey girl, you can stay if you wanna
I don't wanna make you choose

Why you walkin' when you say you wanna run?
Why you lyin' when you say "It's all love"?
Why you tell me that you waitin' by the tely
When I try to ring the tely you ain't even pick it up?
I thought you said you wanna love me like your bible
Thought you said I get you high, no Eiffel
Like a bullet, baby, let me be your rifle
We could take our shot, shot, shot, shot
At the honkytonk takin' shot, shots
Baby, tell me what you want, want, want, want
I don't wanna get it wrong for you
I'm always writin' these songs for you

Two steps in the wrong direction
No chance tryna make you move
Road trip, tryna get past Destin
No way I'm gonna make it through
Road side say "Hey Daytona"
I guess fates racin' through
Hey girl, you can stay if you wanna
I don't wanna make you choose
