Nic D

I'm your fire starter
Your cold water
Out the faucet
When you're hot n' bothered
Blue collar
Shot caller
I'm your know it all
Don't know nada
Treat ya proper
I'm your deep pockets
Your last dollar
From the bottom

I'm your best friend, I'm your enemy
I'm the best thing you could ever need
I'm the gas light to your energy
The fresh air you forget to breathe
I'm the one you tell everything, who you don't wanna talk to
Hold open doors, doors that you don't wanna walk through
I'm a good talk, I'm a real bad fight
I'm a dark spot, I'm a real bright light

I'm your fresh tank
I'm your I'm on empty
I'm your no one knows me better
And your you don't get me
I'm a load off
I'm a hard days work
I'm a god send
I'm your I need church
I'm your one last hope that there might be love
I'm the one bad note in the song you sung
I'm a good cheap date, but I'm way too cheap
I'm your stay up late, I'm your let me sleep

I'm your best friend, I'm your enemy
I'm the best thing you could ever need
I'm the gas light to your energy
The fresh air you forget to breathe
I'm the one you tell everything, who you don't wanna talk to
Hold open doors, doors that you don't wanna walk through
I'm a good talk, I'm a real bad fight
I'm a dark spot, I'm a real bright light

I'm your first drink, I'm your one too many
I'm your light-hearted heart when things get heavy
I'm the long hard talk that you never had
And I'm the only good thing left when things go bad
