

Feel This One

Nic D

Time not gon' heal this one
But you might make it alright
The look in your eyes sayin
I'm not gon' feel this one
But I might pretend I'm alright
Cause this ain't your fight baby

I'm gonna feel this one
Like your skin feels the sun, mm

I'm pathetic, but your empathetic
I'm apologetic I think it's genetic
At least I'm authentic, mm the vibe electric
Your whole aesthetic is photogenic
But I can't seem to shake this one
Don't give a damn if I lose
Ima keep my cool
I don't like the taste of this one
Baby what can I do

Baby time not gon' heal this one
But you might make it alright
The look in your eyes sayin
I'm not goin feel this one
But I might pretend I'm alright
Cause this ain't your fight baby

I'm gon' feel this one
Like your skin feels the sun, mm

Back and forth with conversations in my head
Try to hold 'em back but they just intercept
I just wanna connect
Outside of the internet
Overwhelming try to give that a rest
Try to get it out but it's stuck in my breath
I just wanna make friends yeah
Outside of the internet

I got used to hiding my feelings
I got used to hiding how I feel
I got used to minding my business
I got used to trying to hide here
I love what you do to me
This feeling is new to me
But somehow stupidly

I'm gonna feel this one
Like your skin feels the sun, mm
Time not gon' heal this one
