

Hole Inside Your Heart

Nic D

You got everything you want but got that hole inside your heart still
You try but you can not fill
That's cause only God will

Yeah, I hit the press, don't flex
Create some more, consume less
They want success to my left
I want that less and then less
They want the check, be my guest
Nic you a mess, well I guess
They want collabs and I said
Don't hold your breathe, we don't mesh

Everybody's got something they think that they want
They think when they get it that all of their problems will be solved
I don't know why we decided to put up a front
I don't know why we decided to build up these walls

You got everything you want but got that hole inside your heart still
You try but you can not fill
That's cause only God will

I'm back with another one
Everybody trying rap seen a ton of em
So I guess I gotta spaz right in front of em
Slick with it gotta gotta bread and butter em
Everything that you feeling you never gonna address
You taking what you want and then you leaving the rest
I ain't really about that
Tell me why the marathon will wonder where your mouth at Cause that thang just keep runnin'
I'm just waiting for it to speak somethin'
I'm just waiting for me to reach summit
Oh where the beats at I need to eat somethin'
Yo what the flow like? Homie it's disgusting
You want me to sign that but I ain't gonna be puppet
Y'all think I need something so I can be something
