

I'll set the table

Nic D

Love like this
Make you wanna fall, make you wanna risk it all
For a love like this
Even when it hurts, every part of this is worth it
I know I'm changing
Turning into someone I love

So, if you're around
I'm ready now

I'll set the table, you pour the wine
Lord knows your hand's steadier than mine
If I seem anxious, I am all the time
It's not you, it's all in my mind
I don't know how you're so patient, how you're so kind
If I were you, I'da left me behind
Your belief in me echos when I look in your eyes
Got me thinking it's worth one more try

Every time that I'm with you
I heal a part of myself
I didn't know I was broken
Till I started asking for help
So, if I'm not too late
Too late

And if you're around
I'm ready now

I'll set the table, you pour the wine
Lord knows your hand's steadier than mine
If I seem anxious, I am all the time
It's not you, it's all in my mind
I don't know how you're so patient, how you're so kind
If I were you, I'da left me behind
Your belief in me echos when I look in your eyes
Got me thinking it's worth one more try
