

Insecurities

Nic D

She texted me
She said, "Why'd you leave?"
I said, "You're suffocating baby I need to breathe"
She said, "Where's your heart?"
Thought you wore it on your sleeve
I said, "That's not the problem it's your insecurities"

I walk the city lines
Dreaming of your pretty eyes
I walk the city lines
Dreaming of your pretty eyes

Late night drives when you floor it
I ain't check the time but it might as well be morning
I ain't tryna stop you baby
I just wanna watch you darling
I know ain't no stopping you
I'm the one that got you started
Sorry girl I'm new to this
I thought we were just friends
And all you wanna know is
When the world ends
Is it you and me?

She texted me
She said, "Why'd you leave?"
I said, "You're suffocating baby I need to breathe"
She said, "Where's your heart?"

Oh I know ya type
You fall in love with what you acquire
You ain't have to say it
I could tell it by your attire
They don't want me coming light
They want me dropping some fire
With the way I'm 'bout to strike
You would think I was an umpire
I would take your two cents
If I ain't know it was chump change
I've been here a while now
I can't even spot the runway
Social media got people wondering who gettin' the check
Like a lunch date don't worry you'll get verified one day
