

Intentions

Nic D

Tell me your intentions
When you mention
You're feeling good

What's with your obsession
With asking questions
When you know you look good

Is it for attention
You got my attention
For good

It's like we're texting
I got the message babe
You make me feel good

You ask me how you look
I'm hoping it's rhetorical
Because you look like the stars lit up the night, it's metaphorical
It means you look amazing
Like the lighting when it's raining
Yeah we're married
We're still dating
Nothing's changing
We're just aging, You're

Hard to miss when you walk around like that
I can't take my eyes off you and you like that I let you know you're lookin' good because you like that

Tell me your intentions
When you mention
You're feeling good

What's with your obsession
With asking questions
When you know you look good

Is it for attention
You got my attention
For good

It's like we're texting
I got the message babe
You make me feel good
