I've been up for like six days
Counting all of my mistakes
Startin' feel like a disgrace
Most stories a bit vague
Most people a bit fake
Why you flip like a switch-blade?
How you hidden from this range?
Wanted distance at 16, yeah

These days I'm bound to fall in love
I know if I fall I won't get up
These days I want it all at once
So hard to

These days I'm bound to fall in love
I know if I fall I won't get up
These days I want it all at once
So hard to

I'm still thinking about how you drive me
Everywhere I want to go, and I just ride with you
I'm with you, eyes on you, I couldn't hate staring
You ain't looking at the road since we left home
Roll the window down, throw 'em all out
Peace to the town, feel like I'm chosen

Heard some wisdom, I chose to listen
Gotta go for distance, I blow a piston
My pride is broken, my focus isn't
And I roll my shoulder, I don't forget 'em
I take a beating, I take a hit
And I dodge and duck, and I make 'em miss and that's

These days I'm bound to fall in love
I know if I fall I won't get up
These days I want it all at once
So hard to

Hide your name with mine
It's bold and underlined
You like bird the way you swoop in and stay on the fence
I'm down, Dubai
I'm missing like all these times

I'm just afraid that it's gon' end up like nowhere again
I like you, you like me, I like you more
And you choose to fight but it's all my fault
Always comes in waves since you came alone
No way, no way, no way, no way

These days I'm bound to fall in love
I know if I fall I won't get up
These days I want it all at once
So hard to

These days I'm bound to fall in love
I know if I fall I won't get up

These days I want it all at once
So hard to
