

Lemon Lime

Nic D

(100graham)

Yeah, baby got that lemon lime
Catch the callback, always call back, every time, yeah
I will choose you every day, forever mine
Only thing I'll never say is never mine

(I don't talk about it, nothing else, not a song that I know)
Sit back, told 'em welcome to the show
Future so bright like staring at the snow
Picking out clothes, had to watch it unfold
Still thinkin' about how you reap what you saw
Bac-bac-bacon, I'm needing my dough
[?] hungry, how to eat in my soul
24 hours, that shop never closed
People came, left, yeah, just how [?]

I'm noticing a pattern when the pain is getting splattered
And we hang it up on our wall like it's art

Yeah, baby got that lemon lime
Catch the callback, always call back, every time, yeah
I will choose you every day, forever mine
Only thing I'll never say is never mine

(Baby)

Baby gonna jump like tipoff
You pay word for word, it's all rip-off
Walk around with my heart on my sleeve, I guess it's easy to rip off
I don't know what that means, sound kind of cool, yeah
I'm bodybuilding [?]
Got my money on me man, I'm betting on lose
Only ben a minu-minu-minu-minuscule
In the grand scheme of things, got a grand scheme of things, yeah
Pick the [?], ain't nobody handing me danger
Saw you did it, now we can't be the same, yeah
Only way you drib is if you stand in the rain and baby

I'm noticing a pattern when the pain is getting splattered
And we hang it up on our wall like it's art

Yeah, baby got that lemon lime
Catch the callback, always call back, every time, yeah
I will choose you every day, forever mine
Only thing I'll never say is never mine
