

Max Capacity

Nic D

(Alright
One, two, three)

I've got no room to rent
I'm at max capacity
Refuse to be somebody else as trauma or as tragedy
I paid the piper, it was quite a handsome fee
And he's still knockin' at my door
What more you want from me?

How could I tell my kids to dream
If I just gave up on my own?
Regretting who I wanna wake up next to, one day, when I'm old
I gave up drinkin' for a spill
To find some peace in what I lost
Some people told me that I'd change
Who knew it'd come at such a cost?

I've got no room to rent
I'm at max capacity
Refuse to be somebody else as trauma or as tragedy
I paid the piper, it was quite a handsome fee
And he's still knockin' at my door
What more you want from me?

Alright, I'm fine
I tell myself that all the time
Alright, you're fine
I sold these clouds as silver lines
Alright, okay
Unwrap that fist that's in a ball
You'll save that drive on down the hall
One day, you might just have it all

How could I tell my kids to dream
If I didn't go and see this through
I took a beat and broken route
That road that led me straight to you
Alright, I'm fine
And I really believe it this time
Alright, 'bout time
No vacancy, shut off the sign

(One, two, three)

I've got no room to rent
I'm at max capacity
Refuse to be somebody else as trauma or as tragedy
I paid the piper, it was quite a handsome fee
And he's still knockin' at my door
What more you want from me?

Alright, I'm fine
I tell myself that all the time
Alright, you're fine
I sold these clouds as silver lines
Alright, okay

Unwrap that fist that's in a ball
You'll save that drive on down the hall
