

Midsummer In Bali

Nic D

Leybeats, this go crazy
Ayy Su'a!

I already told you you look good in that dress
I already told you your life's not a mess
And I tell you over and over again
Protectin' your innocence
Wish you were with me again, mm

But that was midsummer in Bali
You post pictures of the party
Them boomerangs of your body
I don't know what to say, ay
But that was midsummer in Bali
You post pictures of the party
Them boomerangs of your body
All I wanted was a sorry for

Ay, ay, don't go sayin' nothin' you don't mean
'Cause words cut deep and they interrupt sleep
You was there, now you gone, you got tricks up your sleeve
I would ask for your help, but it's just sufferin'
'Cause now I'm all alone
I'm a loner, I'm a loner
I know you by your phone
Pick the phone up, pick the phone up
You already out with friends
Hurts when I see you with them
Wish it was with me again, mm

But that was midsummer in Bali
You post pictures of the party
Them boomerangs of your body
I don't know what to say, ay
But that was midsummer in Bali
You post pictures of the party
Them boomerangs of your body
All I wanted was a sorry for

Maybe it wasn't what I thought it was
But it sure as anything felt like the start of love
I bottle up and try not to pick the bottle up
You said "Oh, well", 'cause you ain't waitin' for me to fall in love
You mean more to me 'cause you were out of my league
Sent it back, back, back, like a homerun, yeah
Got my arm 'round your back and our fingers are attached
Only thing to call that is a close one, yeah

In Bali
You post pictures of the party
Them boomerangs of your body
I don't know what to say, ay
But that was midsummer in Bali
You post pictures of the party
Them boomerangs of your body
All I wanted was a sorry for
