

Parachute

Nic D

Fly or fall
What's the difference?
Social norms fit your personality
Easy for you to keep your distance
I ain't sad girl, this my allergies
With how much stuff you run from
You prolly burnt some calories
Oh no, don't mind my heart girl
It's cool, just another casualty
What's it feel like to fall in love?
Prolly something like this
No matter how distracted I get
I keep you at the center

Easy for you to say
Pull your parachute
When you're not the one who's falling

Easy for you to say
Pull your parachute
When you're not the one who's falling

I think I'm picking up what you're putting down
You don't want nothing do with me
I guess just keep the jewelry
That I got you for your birthday
Anyways, I'm gonna go spend some time
Doing nothing but thinking 'bout you
So if you decide to reach out
I'll be free around two
Or any other time, really
So just call, I'll pick it up
Or don't, I'm used to it
Remember when we used to sit and find new music
We'd just shuffle through for hours
And everything we found became ours
But now I can't listen to it at all
Without it bringing up memories of things I wish that never changed
It's okay to fall, easy for you to say
Listen
Just tell me what it is, if there's a way
I know normal won't be normal but a new normal's okay
At least for me
I hope it is for you too

Easy for you to say
Pull your parachute
When you're not the one who's falling

Easy for you to say
Pull your parachute
When you're not the one who's falling
