

Shoes Off

Nic D

Hold up, hold up, hold up

Kick your shoes off, baby let's get comfortable
You can't do no wrong, you're too wonderful
In a world so cold, how'd you warm my soul?
It's a brand new love, but it won't get old

Look, long day's behind ya, through with all the nonsense
Got me cheerin' for you like your first big concert
Told me don't spoil ya, baby but I want to Somebody treat you right, yeah, baby what a concept
We never had a Wednesday night like that
You ain't never had everything you like like that Promise you ain't never ever seen heights like that Want it then I got it, yeah, I'm nice like that

Kick your shoes off, baby let's get comfortable
You can't do no wrong, you're too wonderful
In a world so cold, how'd you warm my soul?
It's a brand new love, but it won't get old

Look, I would go to war for ya, I would be a soldier
I would never hold you back, I'll be there to hold ya
Right there when you wake up, mommy cup of Folger's
I'll be sittin' right here, just come over
'Cause we been movin' lightyears
I don't wanna slow down at all
Did your feet get swept when we broke ground at all?
I was lookin' for the love, not the lust
And somebody I could trust, when I found you I found it all
Yeah, you lighthearted, aren't you ready to get our life started?
You kindhearted, you post a picture then I heart it
I'm Jaylen Brown at the Garden, you just can't guard it
Your last man went missin' on a milk carton
Sianara, baby, so long
Saw you drop back, I had to go along
I'll peel the top back, so get your roll on
You do a lot of things but you do no wrong

Kick your shoes off, baby let's get comfortable
You can't do no wrong, you're too wonderful
In a world so cold, how'd you warm my soul?
It's a brand new love, but it won't get old
