

Somebody

Nic D

I'm happy to announce that I got somebody, I got somebody
Talkin' to her wrong, you gon' make me have to drop somebody, drop somebody
You were rockin' with me back when I was not somebody, I was not somebody
Aren't you happy to announce that you got somebody? You got somebody

If I could get a scholarship for layin' verses
I'd be rappin' out my PhD
They think they got it like me, bruh that's C-A-P
Got me feelin' like I'm Usher, got a B-A-D
When you're gone only time I feel like me ain't me
When my thoughts get loud and life it gets wild
You said, "Throwin' in the towel, it just ain't your style"
I'm turnin' up the dial now, I'll play it real loud
'Cause you know I'm real proud and-

I'm happy to announce that I got somebody, I got somebody
Talkin' to her wrong, you gon' make me have to drop somebody, drop somebody
You were rockin' with me back when I was not somebody, I was not somebody
Aren't you happy to announce that you got somebody? You got somebody

Yeah, my baby hit me up like, "Where you at?"
Drivin' to you, rushin' back, ten seconds flat
And I still make it to you with flat
Ridin' no rounds, came back for you, I was playin' a little Kim
Way back for you, I was out there on a limb
Way back for you, I just did it on the rim
Way back for you, it was sink or swim, won't sink again
Yeah, the chain won't break when we link again
Ayy, you say you like my songs, now you singin' them
Yeah, baby, you a fan of me
Real deep love, now you family

I'm happy to announce that I got somebody, I got somebody
Talkin' to her wrong, you gon' make me have to drop somebody, drop somebody
You were rockin' with me back when I was not somebody, I was not somebody
Aren't you happy to announce that you got somebody? You got somebody
