

Surf's up

Nic D

I say "Surf's up"
Forget you
You a little punk and you know it, know it
I need a Airbnb, I need a week vacation
I need time at the beach, I need to get away from you

Uh, huh
Yeah, yeah
You know who you are

I need a spoonful of ice cream to reboot my paitience
A handful of "I don't cares" feel amazing
I ain't workin' today, nah, nah
Workin' tomorrow, nah, nah
I'ma need a vacay, I don't care who in charge
Won't take part in a race, I just move at my pace
I'ma take off today, I don't care what my boss say

Screamin', "Surf's up"
Forget you
You a little punk and you know it, know it
I need a Airbnb, I need a week vacation
I need time at the beach, I need to get away from you

Uh, huh
Yeah, yeah
You know who you are

I don't want the deep end to be impossible to get out of
I don't wanna be too far gone, so I treat myself
I don't wanna get caught and have the waves take me under
I don't wanna be on my own when I need some help
Bunch of knuckleheads, tell 'em that we let it dance
Tell 'em it's always apart of the plan
I never been one to MSA champs
But I made a missed a couple of shots in my day
I hear that MS is all of the rage
Ignorance may be bliss
But ignorance don't create change
I'm like Chip with all of these games
I'm just stay tryna lift His name
Shout out your wrist and your chain
Forgive me, nothin's to say, uh
Same thing, another day
More love, less hate

I say "Surf's up"
Forget you
You a little punk and you know it, know it
I need a Airbnb, I need a week vacation
I need time at the beach, I need to get away from you
