

One hunnid

Hey
What's your name?
Do you go by Sunny?
Or do you go by Rain?

You're too f- damn pretty
You never leave the city
You just think I'm too good
Too good for ya

I make you smile, but that's too much
Silence the crowd 'cause I'm too clutch
I got some old but on new stuff
This here is work, I don't do luck
You got some lies so you light up
Oh, you along 'cause you so tough
I gotta phone to call your bluff
But you don't answer to no one

Free
That's what you wanna be
So you keep runnin' from everything
Runnin' outta battery, tryna burn a bridge
But all you burnin' is calories, it is what it is
I say

Hey
What's your name?
Do you go by Sunny?
Or do you go by Rain?

You're too f- damn pretty
You never leave the city
You just think I'm too good
Too good for ya

Who am I? Oh, I'm nobody
Who are you? Oh, you somebody
I don't lose, I'm Ricky Bobby
I be Dom, you be Letty
You be Betty, I'll be Crocker
I can feel it gettin' hotter
Must be you, if I leave
I come straight back like [?], uh
Aw, yeah
You forgot to call, yeah
Never went around it
We went through a lot, yeah, okay
For you my heart's left wide open
And when we talk we get deep like oceans

You're too f- damn pretty
You never leave the city
You just think I'm too good
Too good for ya
