

Wayside

Nic D

Sorry about those late nights
Just wait till daylight
You'll see me again
You feel you're thrown to the wayside
And you've been replaced by something again

Wherever you go, I'll go
Whatever you want, I'll want that for you
I know it feels like I'm not there sometimes
I got trouble shutting off my mind
(I got trouble shutting off my mind)
(I got trouble shutting off my mind)
(I got trouble shutting off my mind)
(Trouble shutting off my mind)

Sorry about those late nights
Just wait till daylight
You'll see me again
You feel you're thrown to the wayside
And you've been replaced by something again
Sorry about those late nights
Just wait till daylight
You'll see me again
You feel you're thrown to the wayside
And you've been replaced by something again

Look, I made it my mission
To use what I'm given
To make a difference in the world our son gotta live in It's not to replace you, I promise it isn't
It never would be
It's to elevate us up fully
Sometimes I need you to push me, pull me, show me where I should be, baby
To be honest it makes me love you more when you support the things I do
To be honest, I just hope you know I would do the same for you
To be honest, I wanna say thank you
And I'm sorry for these late nights
You text me "what's your plans for tonight?"
I'ma be late, babe, if that's alright
You say "yeah, that's fine, I love you, good night"
"Just don't forget to shut off the lights"
And I say

Sorry about these late nights
Just wait till daylight
You'll see me again
You feel you're thrown to the wayside
And you've been replaced by something again
Sorry about those late nights
Just wait till daylight
You'll see me again
You feel you're thrown to the wayside
And you've been replaced by something again

Something again (something again)
Something again, not again (something again, something again)
Something again (oh, something again)

Something again, not again (something again, something again)
Something again
Please not something again
