

Be My Rescue

Nichole Nordeman

Sunlit shoreline
Where I was baptized
This time dark skies
Leave me capsized

Some storms claim you
Some will rename you
My hands reach high
Be my lifeline

This is the river where I went under
This is the river where I come up new

Oh, oh God, be my rescue
Oh, oh God, be my rescue
And save me from myself
Save me from myself
Oh, oh God be my rescue tonight

Oh, watching the old me
Slowly sinking
Hope is rising up, I can feel the rush
I'm alive and I'm breathing

Oh, oh God, be my rescue
Oh, oh God, be my rescue
And save me from myself
Save me from myself
Oh, oh God be my rescue tonight

This is the river where I go under
This is the river where I come up new
Baptized in the blood and wonder
This is the river that I fall into
When I fall into You

Oh, oh God, be my rescue
Oh, oh God, be my rescue
And save me from myself
Save me, save me
Oh, oh God be my rescue tonight
Be my rescue tonight
Be my rescue

Save me, save me
Save me, save me
